MARCH 22, 2018

Present: Jennifer Weltich, Carrie Hogue, Elyssa Everling, Kate Taylor

Absent: Judy Misiniec

Agenda	Discussion	Action
Welcome	Meeting called to order at 7:06 p.m.
Old Business	Johnson County Community Foundation reached out to see if the Town of Trafalgar would be interested in preparing a location for their art mural selection committee to review. The advisory board is interested in working toward this for the next cycle, but currently cannot make the arrangements with land/building owners to get permissions before the deadlines.	Review potential buildings for the mural to be submitted during the 2019 cycle.
Grants Update	Public hearing will be held on April 19th at 6:45 p.m. Kristy Jerrell, grants administrator, will request permission from the town to submit planning grant with OCRA. Advisory board reviewed the ad that will appear in the paper announcing the public hearing.	Please attend if possible!
Open House	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Committee reviewed potential names for the park and shelter's. Determined Liberty Park – after the town's original name, and Blue and Red Bird Shelter's. Winners were Eliza Tharpe, Lucy Strauss, Amber Flora, and Todd Bridges. They will be notified and asked to attend the open house. - Carrie will take flyers around to different businesses in town to promote. Judy will work with the schools to promote. Kate will send a press release, work with the Trafalgar Little League and add to the Journey Johnson County website. - Donna sent the names of the sponsors to Kate. They will be invited to attend and plaques will be made by The Nook. - Judy reviewed several different signs throughout Johnson County and the advisory board liked the wooden signs like Independence Park. We will not have time to get the park sign done before the open house, but will work toward getting the sign installed by working with Lee.
